

advance. If a student contracts voluntarily to receive an extra facility or service (including accommodation) from the University, but subsequently fails to pay all or part of the agreed charge, the University maintains the right to withdraw the service and to recoup the outstanding charge.

Force Majeure

Neither you nor the University shall be liable for any delay in performing or non-

Fee payments and refunds